THE LANGDALE OWNERS' NEWSLETTER

No. 23

LANGDALE AFFILIATED TO INTERVAL INTERNATIONAL

Whilst continuing our association with RCI, we are pleased to inform you that Langdale is now also affiliated with the other exchange organisation, Interval International. The reason for this is to provide owners with a greater choice of holiday opportunities at the quality end of the market...

Langdale owners will now be in the unique position of being able to request an exchange into almost any timeshare resort in the world.

There are two distinct features that Interval International have to offer that may appeal to you:

The first is that if you join Interval, the brochure you will receive will clearly indicate which resorts are 5 Star, making it easier for you to select a resort where quality is more assured.

Secondly, the system allows you to choose where you want to go and make a confirmation of your exchange before having to forfeit your own Langdale week.

No pressure, no hassle...

We have negotiated with Interval, as a pre-condition of our affiliation, that their sales staff will not exert any sales pressure on Langdale owners either to encourage them to exchange their week or to rejoin II when their membership lapses.

Making the most of the II offer...

If you are thinking of taking advantage of this membership offer, and particularly if you are planning to exchange into some of their attractive long-haul destinations, it might be a good time to think about purchasing an extra week at Langdale. This would enable you to go for two weeks instead of one, which may be an important consideration when travelling a long distance.

The Timeshare Sales Office has a small number of weeks available at particularly attractive prices. These include some weeks that have been traded in as a result of part-exchanges, a few lodge weeks which have not been previously sold and re-sales on behalf of owners where there are pressing and urgent, personal reasons why a sale has to be made.

For instance, a peak-time week in a two bedroom Chapel Stile Apartment is only £3,288. This would allow you to exchange into one of Interval International's finest timeshare resorts at peak season.

The total number of weeks available under this arrangement is strictly limited and will be disposed of on a first-come, first-served basis.

To take advantage of this opportunity, please ring Karen Smith on 015394 37391 for details.

COMMENTS FROM THE OWNERS' CLUB COMMITTEE

LANGDALE OWNERS' CLUB AGM

The Langdale Owners' Club AGM is being held in the Royal Hall, Harrogate on Sunday 30th October, commencing 2pm. Special terms have been arranged with the Studley Hotel for anyone wishing to visit Harrogate for the AGM. This is an English Tourist Board 4 Crown Commended hotel, close to the Royal Hall and well known to discerning visitors. Twin or double rooms with private bathroom at £43 per person, per night for dinner, bed and breakfast (this includes a £17 allowance towards the a la carte dinner menu if required). Owners wishing to make a booking should contact the Studley Hotel quoting "Langdale Break at £43 per person, per night" on phone 0423 560425 or fax 0423 530967. In addition, a buffet lunch for Langdale owners at £10 per head, excluding drinks, has been arranged from 12 Noon onwards on Sunday 30th October, when the Committee would like to meet as many owners as possible. Owners are requested to make their own bookings with the Studley Hotel in advance as numbers are strictly limited.

Another hotel recommended is the Grants Hotel which is a 2 minute walk from the Royal Hall, and special dinner, bed and breakfast rates have also been negotiated for Langdale owners at the same price of £43 per person, per night. This is an AA/RAC 3 Star hotel. Please phone the hotel on 0423 560666 or fax 0423 502550 to make a booking.

BIGGER & BETTER THAN EVER

By way of a change, this addition of Views has been improved to give you more local news. Better yet, by reducing the number of print colours, we have managed to double the number of pages and at the same time reduce costs. Hope you approve!

PARKING IN ELTERWATER

Traffic obstruction in Elterwater has become a problem to both local residents and visitors to the village.

The County Council has taken official action in a bid to prevent the village becoming the "M25" of the Lake District and has employed a consultant to tackle the problem.

Proposals put forth include:

Very limited yellow lines

Total yellow lines

Statutory "No Waiting" signs

No Parking except permit holders

VICAR LEAVING

Those owners who have visited the Langdale Parish Church at Chapel Stile in recent years may be interested to know that the Reverend Walter Wade is retiring in October as Vicar of Langdale, following seven years in the Community.

IT'S WEDDING TIME

Many of you will know Sharyn Roberts, Deputy Timeshare Manager, Chris Gibson, Wainwrights Manager and Sarah Rumney, Purdeys Restaurant Manager who are pleased to announce their respective weddings this September.

Sharyn will be marrying Mr Mark Rush, and Chris will be marrying Sarah.

We wish them every happiness!

THE LANGDALES SOCIETY

The Langdales Society serves as a focus of opinion and interest for the Langdale area and helps to conserve the character of the countryside. Four Newsletters are published a year. If you would like to support its work and become a member, please send a subscription of £3 (£1.50 for senior citizens) and an extra £2 for copies of Valley News, to David Fry, Membership Secretary, Maple Tree Corner, Elterwater, Ambleside, Cumbria LA22 9HP.

PIGLING BLAND GOES TO LANGDALE

Our thanks go to Marian Werner, an owner and Publicity Officer of the Beatrix Potter Society, who has arranged for all lodges and apartments to receive a complimentary copy of "The Tale of Pigling Bland" to mark the 100th birthday of Peter Rabbit.

NEWS RELEASE BY THE ENGLISH TOURIST BOARD, 29 JUNE 1994

TOP TOURIST AWARD FOR LANGDALE

Langdale Leisure timeshare complex has become the first timeshare complex in England to achieve the FIVE KEYS up to DE LUXE status in the National and Regional Tourist Boards' accommodation classification and grading scheme. Adele Biss, Chairman of the English Tourist Board, presented the award to David Fairs, Director and General Manager, at Langdale during a meeting of Regional Tourist Board Chairmen and Directors on Wednesday 29 June.

After receiving the award, Mr David Fairs recalled that a predecessor Chairman of the ETB, in opening the Langdale development in May 1982, described it as "one of the finest in Europe - a shining example and a model of environmental care". He went on to say that, although we hold a Civic Trust Award for enhancing the environment and the highest quality award from the timeshare exchange organisations, he felt that receiving the 5 Keys De-Luxe award for self-catering would undoubtedly contribute to an improvement in the public's image of timeshare, which other resorts in the UK may wish to follow.

John Owen, Director of Cumbria Tourist Board added: "this award further demonstrates the commitment to quality of the accommodation industry in Cumbria and I am delighted that Langdale Leisure selected the Tourist Board schemes as the most thorough and appropriate trademark of standards applicable to the timeshare industry. I am confident that many will follow this example."

Timeshare is now one of the fastest growing sectors of the international tourism industry with 1/3 million owners living in the UK.

LANGDALE VIDEO

The fifteen minute tour of the Estate and adjoining amenities has been popular with owners. Several hundred copies have been sold. It was filmed two years ago and the same film crew returned to Langdale recently to revise and update it to reflect improvements and changes. Copies are available at the Club Desk on loan for viewing in your lodge or apartment, or for purchase at £10 each.

FOOTPATH REPAIR WORK IN THE LANGDALE VALLEY

Most visitors to The Langdale Estate take a great delight in walking, particularly in the Langdale Valley or on the fells, but do you ever stop to consider the extent of the damage caused by erosion of our footpaths? No doubt you will be considerably impressed by the construction of new footpaths on many of the more popular fell routes, and the constant improvements being made to reduce erosion caused by the 11 million visitors to the Lake District each year. A number of organisations including the National Park Authority, National Trust and the British Trust for Conservation Volunteers are already working hard to repair damaged footpaths to enable us all to enjoy the scenery and special atmosphere of the Lakes.

However, due to the enormity and cost of the work (there are 1,860 miles of well-used footpaths in the National Park), there is never enough money to fund all the desperately needed projects. We have therefore come to an agreement with The National Trust whereby The Langdale Estate will attempt to raise funds through voluntary donations from the Langdale Owners' Club to enable The National Trust to increase its footpath repair team in the Langdale Valley from three to four persons, at a total cost of £10,000 a year, and to support this project for two years.

The employment of this additional person will allow The National Trust to accelerate conservation and footpath repair work in the Langdale Valley. A good example of their work is the extension of the footpath from the Old Dungeon Ghyll towards Stickle Tarn, also further up beyond Stickle Tarn on the route up to Harrison Stickle and Pike O'Blisco. Many of you will have taken the delightful Silver Howe route from Chapel Stile over into Grasmere and that is another area which The National Trust hope to be able to tackle with the extra manpower.

Footpath repair work on Raven Crag, Great Langdale

The person concerned has now been engaged and donations of over £2,000 have been received so far from owners, which is an encouraging start. We have received valuable assistance from Middleton's Print Works in Ambleside who have kindly printed the special donation envelopes free of charge. As a guide, we would exceed our target if each family contributed £5 for each week they have at Langdale and it is very much hoped that you will be able to support this project by making a donation on your next visit. In addition, you can also make a donation by sending a cheque payable to "Invest in the Lakes Fund" to Julie Robinson here at Langdale.

We are proposing to equip "our man" with Langdale logo'd clothing and invite him to visit us here on the Estate from time to time so that you may meet him - just to prove that he really does exist!

LAKE DISTRICT SUMMER MUSIC FESTIVAL

Artistic director Renna Kellaway presents Katy Ashcroft (12) with the prize for the LDSM Young String Venture Student 1994

Each August since 1985, the Lake District Music Festival and integrated International Summer Schools have taken place. Now established as a musical event of significance, this festival features distinguished international artistes in concerts throughout the Lake District.

A number of Langdale Owners, including Mr & Mrs Terry Mears from Swansea, make the festival the focal point of their holiday. Their daughter Liza (15) takes part in the Young String Venture Course, run by the LDSM.

For other Langdale "Music Lovers", next year's festival will be held from 29 July - 12 August, when the Lake District Summer Music Festival will be celebrating its tenth anniversary.

For further information please contact: The Administrator, LDSM, 1-3 Greenhill, Wirksworth, Derbyshire, DE4 4EN. Telephone 01629 823733.

10MPH SPEED LIMIT ON LAKE WINDERMERE

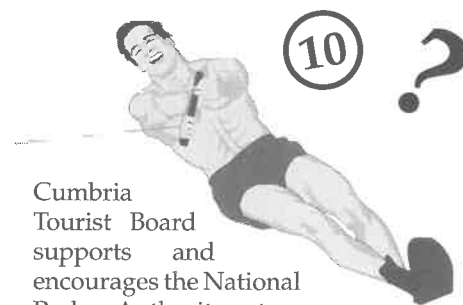

A Government inquiry has been taking place throughout the summer on the proposal to impose a 10mph speed limit on Lake Windermere and the following represents the line being taken by the Cumbria Tourist Board.

They have objected to the proposed blanket speed restriction as it feels it would unnecessarily restrict the use of the lake and would have an undesirable effect on many tourism businesses in the area. Tourism in Cumbria is a vital industry employing more than 42,000 people, which must be sustained, but the quality of the environment must also be maintained.

They feel the problems that exist in the use of the lake should be resolved by an agreed management plan which would be less harmful to the economy and to established interests. The Government also believes that co-operation between the Regional Tourist Boards, National Park Authorities, countryside agencies, the Sports Council and sporting organisations is the best means of encouraging sensitive uses of the National Park, and that restrictions should only be imposed in extreme cases.

Cumbria Tourist Board worked with the Environment Council in 1993 to attempt to bring the various groups together to discuss the use of the lake, but the Lake District National Park Authority did not participate. Subsequently, the Sports Council has prepared a Management Plan which Cumbria Tourist Board supports and encourages the National Park Authority to co-ordinate a proper Management Plan for Lake Windermere rather than to use compulsion. The Board feels that the proposed byelaw would cause unnecessary harm to the economy of the area and would miss the opportunity to resolve other problems.

The debate is finely balanced and we all await the outcome with interest.

DISMANTLING LAKE DISTRICT CAIRNS - ENVIRONMENTALLY FRIENDLY OR VANDALISM?

You may have read in the national press recently articles about "countryside conservationists" tearing down the piles of stones known as cairns and scattering them in order to improve the landscape.

Many of you who walk these fells will have differing points of view - you may think that the cairns should not be there and the place should be left wild like the mountains of Scotland or the Himalayas. This has led to impassioned debate among hill walkers.

Some cairns may be relatively new and are perhaps unnecessary, but others serve a useful purpose and have been part of the fell tops for a century or more. They are mentioned in Wainwright's guidebooks and indeed have become part of the landscape. Many walking maps show "pile of stones" at various grid references, making it easier for walkers to find their way.

Supporters of the cairns argue that some are important, centuries old location markers for shepherds or people walking the hills, and are particularly valuable when the fells are covered in snow. Some mark a particular spot - a summit or a place traditionally used by shepherds, and placing an extra stone on top of the pile has become recognised as a helpful thing for walkers to do in order to identify the way.

Since the "environment" was invented about 30 years ago, great progress has been made. But will the removal of cairns by a small band of earnest, grim-faced cairn-destroyers in the Lake District lead ultimately to the removal of the stone walls and sheep pens that presently delight visitors? Will even Wordsworth's Dove Cottage in tourist-blighted Grasmere be safe from their environmental fury, because the ground it stands on was once as wild and natural as ever they could wish for?

OWNERS' CLUB GOLD CARD MEMBERSHIP

An increasing number of owners have taken advantage of joining the Langdale Country Club under our Owners' Gold Card Membership Scheme, which enables them to use the facilities year-round, outside of their normal timeshare week. Recognising that, due to distance, visits will be much less frequent than would be the case if you lived locally, the annual membership fee is reduced by 60%. To give you an example, full family membership per year is £192 to owners and only £124 for a couple over 60. Even though the membership year begins on 1 April, owners may join at any time at a pro-rata rate for the remaining part of the membership year. Please contact Sheila Murphy, Club Secretary, for details.

EXCHANGE HOLIDAYS

The Owners' Club Office keeps a folder of updated comments from owners who have had either good or bad experiences as a result of exchange holidays. Please therefore keep us informed and do please call in and benefit from other people's experiences if you want to improve your chances of securing a better exchange.

One owner requested that we should draw attention to a recent RCI exchange holiday which he described as an absolutely appalling experience. We are reluctant to name the resort for legal reasons but, as it was a RCI Gold Crown resort, questions have to be asked about the value of Gold Crown ratings. We sought a response from RCI who said that the award is given on an annual basis and any resort unable to maintain the necessary standards will lose its Gold Crown status.

Resorts awarded the Gold Crown status are in the special high quality category and it would be reasonable to assume some parity in standards. Whilst we are graded Gold Crown by RCI and come into Interval International's 5 Star category, you will have read elsewhere that we have recently joined the English Tourist Board grading scheme, whose standards are widely recognised and understood with their highest accolade more demanding than RCI and II.

TWINNING

Four Seasons Fairways, Portugal

There continues to be a strong demand for direct exchanges into Four Seasons Fairways and at the time of writing a large number of owners have requested an exchange. All reports have been extremely good. Please get in touch with Sharyn Roberts if you would like further information.

Tresco, Isles of Scilly

This latest twinning arrangement has had somewhat less impact, mainly because the resort is smaller in size than Langdale with correspondingly less availability. However, it is interesting to record that the first owners from Langdale to go to Tresco liked it so much that they decided to buy a week there and the first owners from Tresco to come to Langdale bought a week here!

BRACKENS

One of the best-kept secrets of Langdale is our delightful, stone-built Lakeland Cottage, nestling cosily between the Estate and Elterwater village. It is used by a growing number of Langdale owners tempted to have an additional holiday at a reasonable price with all the benefits of the Estate on hand, with traditional cottage comforts including a log fire and its own secluded garden. Please ring 015394 37391 for reservations for 1995.

VIDEO PLAYERS

As part of our upgrading programme, all lodges and apartments now have video players so, next time you visit, you might like to bring your favourite movies with you, or take advantage of the hire service provided from the Club Desk.

INTRODUCE A FRIEND TO THE BEAUTY AND LIFESTYLE OF LANGDALE

Some of the most welcome visitors to Langdale are those who have been recommended by an existing lodge owner - who better to give them an accurate picture of the beauty and lifestyle of the Estate?

Many of these visitors themselves become owners at Langdale, Elterwater Hall and Chapel Stile, and when this happens we like to show our appreciation to the owner who made the introduction. We would be most grateful if you could introduce a friend by completing the tear-off slip below and sending it to Karen Smith at Langdale. We will then send your friends information and brochures.

If your introduction results in a sale, we say thank you with a champagne dinner for two in Purdeys Restaurant and, for a second sale, we will pay your management charges for one week in one year.

As the majority of sales transactions are now resales on behalf of owners, your introduction will be helping an existing owner as well as your friend.

TO ALL THOSE WHO WORK WHILST WE RELAX

By Joan Stroud & the rest of the Strouds
(Lodge 36 Week 14)

"Thought you might appreciate a copy of these lines I scribbled on our last morning at Langdale this year. We have been coming at Easter for eleven years now and still enjoy it as much as ever.

Thank you all for making it such a lovely place to be.

As We Leave Langdale

It rains; it snows; it hails,
Not to mention wind and gales,
Our Langdale welcome never fails.
But safe inside our cosy lodge,
The outdoor hazards we can dodge,
And plan our route for when the sun
Shines on us so we can have fun.

In the meantime we will swim,
Those of us who're fit and trim,
And work-out daily in the gym,
To keep us all so neat and slim.
If we fancy eating out,
Where to go we have no doubt,
Try Purdeys Country Club for dinner,
You certainly won't end up thinner.

A Wordsworth I may never be,
Of rhymes I'm running short,
But sad am I as now we leave,
And must add one last thought.
We hope next week is kind to you,
But, if not, just enjoy the view,
And don't forget my birds to feed,
They dined this week on the best of seed.

And if you like to rise at five,
The dawn chorus you will survive,
If not the best I can suggest
To your imagination I'll leave the rest!
And so farewell and all the best,
From us of week fourteen,
We think of you all here next week,
With envy we are green!

LODGE TRADE-UP SCHEME

Three years ago we introduced the lodge and apartment trade-up scheme for owners with changed family circumstances who wanted to either trade up to a larger lodge or to holiday at a different time of year. Over 100 exchanges have been made and please let us know if you are interested. A number of owners have used this opportunity to purchase a week in Elterwater Hall, which incidentally was regarded by the Senior Inspector of the English Tourist Board as one of the most prestigious properties they had seen and comfortably falling into their 5 Keys De-Luxe category. As a measure of the quality, there are only 57 other properties in England out of over 10,000 which are members of the English Tourist Board that reach the high standards required for this grading.

If you would like to take advantage of this part-exchange offer, or follow up the other special sales offer, you may wish to book a Privileged Visitor break. This is an invitation to stay in the Langdale Hotel for two persons for two nights, dinner, bed and breakfast at £170 per person, which is about half the normal rate. Please ring Karen Smith on 015394 37391 for further information.

OWNERS' WINTER WEEKEND

Dinner Dance and Fell Walking Holiday

There are times in winter when your spirit is sorely in need of an uplift. Perhaps that's why many of you take advantage of the Hotel's special breaks to come back to Langdale at different times of the year.

A walk in the clean, bracing air on a bright crisp winter's day is a delight, especially if the sun is shining on the snow-covered mountain sides. Adding to the enjoyment, of course, is the thought of returning to the warmth and comfort of the hotel.

It is at this time of year that the leisure, fitness and other facilities of the Country Club really come into their own, ensuring that the weather really makes no difference to the enjoyment of a stay at Langdale.

It's a time of year we thought we'd organise something very special for owners... a chance to get away, get together with other owners and make new friends at the 'Owners' Winter Weekend.'

Arriving at the Langdale Hotel on Friday 3rd February, you may check in any time after 2pm and spend the evening at leisure - you may choose to dine in Purdeys, the Tamarind or Wainwrights Inn.

Saturday will be the time for us all to get together for a guided walk.

The route will depend on the weather conditions on the day - the company being just as important as the fell walking!

In the evening we will meet for a private drinks reception and then enjoy a 5 course Gala Dinner in Purdeys Restaurant, followed by live music for dancing until the early hours.

Farewells to your new-found friends will be after breakfast on Sunday morning, or stay an extra night, leaving on Monday.

LANGDALE WALKING HOLIDAYS

There were 14 on the May 1994 Langdale visit to Nepal, along with 5 Sherpas, 3 Porters and 5 Yaks. David Fairs and Tensing the Groups Sirdar (Head Sherpa).

Since the last edition of Views there has been a third trip to Nepal, this time flying from Kathmandu by twin Otter to the airstrip at Lukla and spending eleven days trekking in the rugged scenery of the Sagarmatha National Park. From Namche Bazaar we walked to Thame, Khumjung and Thyang Boche monastery, reaching our furthest point at Ding Boche, 14,500 feet. We were lucky with the weather which was mostly warm and sunny, and the rhododendrons were magnificent. We stayed overnight in lodges with local Sherpa families.

The holiday planned for Lake Garda in September 1994 is fully booked, along with the return visit to Seefeld, Austria in May and Oregon in September 1995.

Please fill in the slip below if you would like information on the trip to Northern Mallorca, 11-18 March 1995. Departures from Manchester and Gatwick. We will be based at the superb Hotel Illa D'Or in Puerto de Pollenca, with a carefully planned programme of walks which will include the mountains and coastal area of Northern Mallorca, the spectacular Formentor Peninsula, lovely Mallorcan villages, and the haunts of poets and artists. Our local walking guide is also an ornithologist and the programme will include some bird watching.

As a reminder, these holidays are planned and led by David Fairs in his own time. Numbers on each trip are restricted and they tend to get booked up well in advance.

ENJOY AN ADDITIONAL WINTER HOLIDAY IN ONE OF OUR LODGES OR APARTMENTS

At the turn of the year, close to Christmas and the New Year holiday, an anomaly in the timeshare calendar provides a unique opportunity for owners to enjoy an additional short break, or in some cases over a week. This offer is first being made to owners as lodges or apartments would otherwise be empty.

We have simplified the tariff by showing the price per day, so you can come for as long or as short a time as you like. Before Christmas most properties are available for 4-6 days between 16th and 23rd December 1994; following New Year all properties are available for 7-10 days between 5th and 15th January 1995.
